Rebella Accountancy presents:

2015 Employment Law Updates & Hot Topics for Dental Practices

As we prepare to leave 2014 behind and enter 2015, our political leaders continue to make it difficult to do business in California, especially when it comes to the ever-increasing number of employment law mandates. While dental practice employers are usually very generous with their staff, generosity does not equal legally compliant. As backward as it may sound, the more generous you are, the higher the potential "damages" award against you for any mistakes you might make. This is especially true with respect to employee compensation (including production-based pay, overtime and bonuses), employee benefits (which just got more complicated with the new paid sick leave law), and mandatory vs. not mandatory leaves of absence. In this program, we will discuss all of these topics and more.

2015 Legal Updates & Hot Topics

Our discussion will include a new laws update for 2015, including statutes and cases, plus other hot topics and important trends in employment law claims.

Morning Break

During our break, we will serve refreshments and have an open forum to talk through employment issues and questions you may want to discuss.

Wage & Hour Landmines & Related Hot Topics

After our break, we will discuss Wage and Hour for dental practices, traps for the unwary, alternative workweek schedules, employee benefits, and related topics.
